

GED Test Schedule 2009

Applicants must pre-register in person before registration deadline and bring

- Florida Driver's License or Florida Photo ID indicating Polk County residency;
- Authentic Social Security card (no photocopies);
- $70.00 in cash;

You must be at least 18 years old to test.

The GED Test is available in either English or Spanish print.

Special accommodations in testing candidates with documented physical and/or learning disabilities are available.

In order to take the GED 2008 tests, you must attend a one-time registration/orientation session. These sessions are scheduled for the GED Testing Center at the West Area Adult School in Lakeland.

At the orientation session, you will complete a required demographic information packet and the forms necessary for your GED tests. Additionally you will be shown a video designed to familiarize you with the scientific calculator provided for the math section of the test. Also at this session you will choose which available test dates to attend.
